A reflective and practical experience of the guiding principles of Catholic Social Teaching to promote the flourishing of creation and the building of a more just and compassionate society in the light of Laudato Si by Pope Francis.

Deepen your engagement and sharing of the principles and mission that underpin Catholic social services.

Towards the end of a busy year, come along for a day of personal challenge and enrichment which will further resource you with a deeper integration of these principles into your work and lifestyle.

Experience the call of Pope Francis for "a culture of care and interdependence that fashions bridges instead of walls" in our sharing of our common home with all creation.
