

Lunchtime Conversation with Fr Michael Kelly

Wednesday 7 November: 12.30 – 2.00pm

A Journey with Urban Refugees in Bangkok

Members and friends of Catholic Social Services Victoria are warmly invited to a lunchtime conversation with Fr Michael Kelly sj. This is an opportunity to explore an international perspective on issues facing people seeking asylum.

Fr Michael Kelly sj, an Australian journalist and publisher, lives in Bangkok, Thailand, where his life intersects with many people seeking asylum. Many of these live messy, dangerous lives, and those that work with them need to keep in mind that 'the only unforgiveable sin is despair'.

Click here for a recent article on this topic by Fr Michael in Eureka Street.

Venue:

Albert Room, Cardinal Knox Centre, 393 Albert St, East Melbourne

RSVP to Lucia Brick: lbrick@css.org.au, tel 9287 5570.

Tea and coffee provided – bring a sandwich.