

WALKING ON THE LAND WITH CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING

“Today, however, we have to realize that a true ecological approach always becomes a social approach; it must integrate questions of justice in debates on the environment, so as to hear both the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor.” – LAUDATO SI #49

A practical experience of applying the principles of Catholic Social Teaching to promote the flourishing of creation and the building of a more just and compassionate society.

Do you want to deepen your engagement, and that of your organisation, with the principles and mission that underpin Catholic social services?

Come along for a day of personal challenge and enrichment which will resource you to work with others for a deeper integration into your work of these fundamental principles.

“Thank you so much, very supportive personal experience for my work, also much learning in offering opportunities for others in reflective way.” – from a previous workshop participant

One more opportunity this year:

Coastal workshop on 28 November 2019 at Williamstown.
