

INVITE YOU TO A BOOK LAUNCH

Hearing Healing Hope: The Ministry of Service in Challenging Times

5.30 for 6.00—7.00pm
Tuesday 13 November 2018
Cathedral Room, Cardinal Knox Centre,
383 Albert Street (enter via Lansdowne St) East Melbourne

Book Online: <https://www.trybooking.com/YTGU>

Enquiries: e: lucia.brick@css.org.au t: 03 9287 5566

LAUNCHED BY Julian McMahon AC

Hearing, Healing, Hope draws on material that was presented at the 2018 Catholic Social Services Conference.

Chapters are contributed by sector leaders and distinguished commentators, including Fr Frank Brennan SJ of Catholic Social Services Australia; Dr Robyn Miller from MacKillop Family Services; Elizabeth Proust from Australian Institute of Company Directors, Geraldine Doogue from the ABC, Phil Glendenning from the Edmund Rice Centre, journalist Paul Bongiorno.

Editors

Gabrielle McMullen AM

Patrice Scales

Denis Fitzgerald

From the book:

Archbishop Mark Coleridge

'There has never been room for complacency in a Church that seeks to be at the service of humanity'

Phil Glendenning

'The Conference was timely as we explore the barriers, challenges, hopes and opportunities we face in serving those who are at the heart of the mission of the Church'